

HANSAmEd Announces Distribution Partnership with Dental Source Canada.

Tuesday, July 17, 2007

(Mississauga, Ontario, Canada)

HANSAmEd Limited has granted Dental Source Canada exclusive dealership privileges for Ultracaine® products in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

HANSAmEd Limited is positive that this distribution partnership with Dental Source Canada will allow both companies to better serve the dental community in these provinces.

Dental Source Canada, located in Halifax, NS, was established in 1999, and is currently the only locally owned and operated dental supply company in the Maritimes. Dental Source Canada is a business unit of CAN-med Healthcare, a division of IMP Group Limited, a diversified, multi-national company which has been the recipient, during the last four years of the “Canada's 50 Best Managed Companies” award. This prestigious national award is sponsored by Deloitte, CIBC Commercial Banking, National Post, and Queen's School of Business.

HANSAmEd Limited was established in 1996, and, in 1999, became the exclusive distributor of the original articaine, Ultracaine®, in Canada. Since then, the company has become the only pain management and infection control focused company in the North American dental market. HANSAmEd Ltd. is located in Mississauga, Ontario.
